

Nov. 5th Invitation.

Day of the Dead Parade.

As the night progresses, our special guests start arriving. You can feel them on the air full of memories. A festive event is being offered in their name, their pictures marking their place at the table, bright pictures for everyone to see, to remember, to relive!

The procession of our loved ones coming back to visit is Central to the celebration of the Day of the Dead, a Pre-Hispanic Non-Religious Holiday celebrated throughout Mexico, also celebrated by people of other ancestries, lovers of the festive and inclusive event.

CABA invites you to participate in our Central Avenue Day of the Dead Parade.

November 5th, 2022. 5:00pm Lineup – 6:00pm Parade
N. Tremont Street to 16th Street on Central Avenue.

To participate in the parade, fill out the attached registration form, understand this is not a Zombie Parade, this is a Happy Celebration. Bring pictures of your loved ones, dress as they used to dress, wear beautifully decorated skeleton masks, but more important, enjoy the moment with their company because as long as someone, anyone on earth has the memory of them in their hearth, they are still with us!

Please fill out the registration form and get ready to enjoy an Evening of Community, Music, Food and Memories!
